ANTI-MILITARISM THE THEME OF DEFENDANT DENIES ALLEGATION THAT HE RECEIVED MONEY LAST NIGHT

Another largely attended lecture Another largely attended lecture was given last evening in the Airdome under the auspices of the local Socialists. The speaker was Prof. Geo. R. Kirkpatrick of New York City, who is lecturer for the board of education for the City of New York, and is also instructor in the Rand School of Social Science. Prof. Kirkpatrick is author of the work, "War, What For?" which is now in its eleventh edition. Some idea of the nature of the work may be gained by the fact dition. Some idea of the nature of the work may be gained by the fact that it is barred from the British colonies, because of the deterrent effect it has upon enlistment. A large number of volumes were disposed of at the lecture and others will be had when the next meeting is held. The general theme of Prof. Kirking patrick's address was "Anti-Militarism." He said that preparedness does not prevent war, as is evidenced in tried to escape from the county jail in Sait Lake City a few lays ago but the attempt proved a fallure.

were all prepared at heavy cost. The speaker was opposed to the principles of modern warfare, in that property interests were placed above human life. The capitalist makes money out of war, while the man without means is forced to even yield up his life. Another point made by the speaker was that society demands that every man shall work, and then refuses to grant to many an opportunity to work. The large audience listened most attentively and frequently applauded his utterances.

LITERARY SOCIETY HAS GOOD PROGRAM

BOYS AND GIRLS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL WILL ALTERNATE AS ENTERTAINERS

The next regular meeting of the high school literary society will be held on Friday, March 11. For this meeting the entire program will be rendered by the boys of the high school. It is presumed that the program for the succeeding meeting will be prepared by the girls. The boys have plenty of talent among their number and it is not at all likely that they will allow the girls to excel them. put upon a map. At home she re eived Spartan training and with father who was an invalid for life, and a brother who was incurrably ill, she experienced many sorrows and hardships.

Upon the death of her brother, the princess was sent away to visit her aunt, the Grand Duchess Helena of Russia, who took her traveling to various parts of Europe. It was during this tour, however, that the princess berself was stricken with typhus fever, and when she recovered it was to learn that her father had passed away. She was deeply affected by the sorrow in her family, and music and poetry became her only consolation. "Must all I love on earth be borne to the grave?" is the burden of a mournful poem that she wrote at the time of her father's death.
